Effective date: [Date]

Last updated: [Date]

Policy owner: [Position or department]

1. Purpose

[Organization Name] is committed to conducting business with integrity and transparency. This Conflict of Interest Policy outlines guidelines to identify, disclose and manage conflicts of interest that may arise in the course of business operations.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all employees, officers, directors, contractors and any individuals acting on behalf of [Organization Name]. It covers all situations where personal, financial or other interests may conflict with the duties owed to the organization.

3. Definition of conflict of interest

A conflict of interest arises when an individual's personal interests interfere, or appear to interfere, with the interests of [Organization Name]. Examples include, but are not limited to:

- Personal financial interests in vendors, suppliers or competitors.
- Engaging in business activities that compete with those of [Organization Name].
- Hiring or supervising close relatives or friends.
- Receiving gifts, favors, or benefits from individuals or entities conducting business with [Organization Name].
- Using confidential information for personal gain.

4. Disclosure and reporting

- Employees and affiliates must disclose any actual or potential conflicts of interest to their supervisor, HR or a designated compliance officer.
- Disclosure must be made in writing and as soon as the potential conflict is identified.
- Periodic conflict of interest declarations may be required to ensure ongoing compliance.

5. Management and resolution

- The organization will review disclosed conflicts and determine appropriate measures to mitigate risks.
- Employees may be required to recuse themselves from decision-making processes related to the conflict.
- In certain cases, divestment from conflicting interests may be necessary.

6. Consequences of non-compliance

- Failure to disclose or appropriately manage a conflict of interest may result in disciplinary action, including termination of employment.
- Legal consequences may apply in cases of fraud, bribery or unethical behavior.

7. Review and updates

- This policy will be reviewed periodically to ensure alignment with legal and ethical standards.
- Employees are required to acknowledge and adhere to this policy as part of their employment obligations.

8. Acknowledgment

By engaging with [Organization Name], individuals acknowledge their responsibility to identify, disclose and manage conflicts of interest in accordance with this policy.
